Artist biography

Major Feels is a top-end London-based duo formed by two highly experienced professional musicians: Sereta Baldwin and Juan Bautista Montano. Together they combine vocals, bass, piano and guitar with a confident, engaging live presentation.

Their background spans international contracts, session work, theatre productions, festivals and performances with established artists. This breadth of experience allows the duo to adapt naturally to lounges, hotels, events and lively evening programmes.

THE ARTISTS BEHIND MAJOR FEELS

Professional experience, musical versatility & audience connection

01 SERETA BALDWIN

BASS • VOCALS

Sereta is a bassist and vocalist who has been engaging audiences for more than a decade. Alongside long-term international contracts, she has worked as a session musician, headlined festivals, performed in theatre productions including Six the Musical and Burn the Floor, and played bass for original artists including Gloria Gaynor.

02 JUAN BAUTISTA MONTANO

PIANO • GUITAR • ELECTRIC BASS • UPRIGHT BASS

Juan is a skilled multi-instrumentalist who performs piano, guitar, electric bass and upright bass to a high professional standard. Working professionally since 2012, he has performed with artists across many genres and on stages of every size. He holds a degree in music and brings strong reading and improvisation skills to the duo.

03 SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Major Feels has completed an entertainment contract aboard Norwegian Cruise Line's Breakaway, adding cruise-ship performance experience to the duo's theatre, festival, session and international live-entertainment background.
