THE ARTISTS BEHIND M&M

Two established performers, one versatile international act

01 MÉLANE DESJARDINS

VOCALIST • SONGWRITER • PERFORMER

A self-taught artist, songwriter and performer, Mélane began singing in her native Abitibi at a very young age. She recorded her first single at six and later appeared in competitions, musical revues, telethons and live productions. She reached Québec's Top 10 at Cégep en Spectacle in 1995 and was a semi-finalist at the Festival international de la chanson de Granby in 1997, while also performing for six years as a lead and backing vocalist in a rock'n'roll band.

In 1999, she performed in Tokyo and Osaka. From November 2001 to March 2002, she completed 95 shows in New Hampshire and Atlantic City, later returning to the United States for a six-week musical revue. Mélane produced her first two albums and original shows; her third EP, One Way, was supported by Musicaction in 2010. Her warm, powerful voice moves naturally through jazz, blues, soul, pop, folk and rock.

02 MICHEL DESJARDINS

PIANIST • MUSICAL DIRECTOR • COMPOSER

Michel is an exceptionally experienced pianist who has performed for more than 25 years in over 28 countries, including the Olympia in Paris, the Montréal Forum and the Capitol in Québec City, as well as with the Sibiu Symphony Orchestra. His credits include work with Bruno Pelletier, Dan Bigras, Marie Carmen, Elvis Story, Garou, Isabelle Boulay, Robert Marien, Mario Pelchat, Richard Séguin, Michel Rivard, Claude Dubois, Laurence Jalbert, Nanette Workman, Marjo, Éric Lapointe, Luce Dufault, Daniel Boucher, Michèle Richard and Mélane.

He has collaborated with Luc Plamondon productions including Notre-Dame de Paris, Starmania and Star Académie, and has composed, produced and performed for contemporary dance, Cirque Éloize and album projects. His cruise engagements include Holland America, Chandris, Crystal Cruises, Croisières AML and Regent Seven Seas. Before forming M&M, Michel had already completed more than 3,000 performances, including 700 with his jazz trio.
