A SOPHISTICATED MUSICAL PARTNERSHIP

Artist biography

Red House Duo is a sophisticated and dynamic husband-and-wife musical ensemble featuring vocalist and multi-instrumentalist Denet Santana Hemmans alongside saxophonist and multi-instrumentalist A. Wesley Hemmans. Their polished presentation, musical versatility and natural chemistry create an engaging live experience for international audiences.

Originally from Cuba, Denet is a powerful R&B, Latin and Pop vocalist as well as an accomplished pianist. A graduate of the Amadeo Roldán Music Conservatory in Havana, she combines a strong musical foundation with expressive vocals, confident stage presence and a refined commercial sound.

Wesley is an American saxophonist, flautist, keyboardist and backing vocalist with extensive experience in Jazz, R&B, Pop and commercial music. His technical skill, warm tone and showmanship bring both elegance and energy to the duo's performances.

Together, Denet and Wesley have performed throughout the United States, China, Southeast Asia, the Middle East, the Caribbean and Latin America. Their international background allows them to connect naturally with audiences of different ages, cultures and musical tastes.

Their extensive repertoire combines soulful twentieth-century classics with contemporary chart hits, smooth jazz, R&B, Pop, Latin music, Motown, disco and funk. From refined background entertainment to lively dance sets, Red House Duo adapts its programme to the atmosphere and audience of each venue.

With complementary talents, an elegant image and a captivating stage presence, Red House Duo offers memorable entertainment for hotels, resorts, cruise ships, corporate events and private functions.
